

Name: _____

Because the owl is Wise, he “gives a hoot.” This means that he cares! He is worried because some birds and animals are in danger of becoming extinct. But it’s still not too late, and he wants you to learn all you can about endangered species. Cut out the wise old owl and wear it as a badge to spread your information to others.

1. On the back of this sheet, draw a picture of your endangered species.

2. Check library resources to find out why this is happening. Write three reasons here.

- a. _____
- b. _____
- c. _____

3. What is being done about it? how can you help? (Share this written information in class.)

4. What would the earth be like if this creature were to become extinct?
